

Testimonials

'In-depth knowledge of all regulatory matters concerning the finance industry in the Netherlands. Boutique firm that easily equals large domestic and international firms in its areas of expertise.'

'The team vibrates with the strength and energy to defend your rights and win your case. They are strong with putting all the details into a defence of your case which gives you back your confidence even in the most difficult situations.'

'The team works very well together. Frank 't Hart, being the head of the practice and the expert, works seamlessly with his colleagues. This results in lower invoices without having to compromise on client knowledge and speed.'

'Frank 't Hart is in my opinion the expert in the Netherlands when it comes to financial regulatory matters. He has a very large knowledge from the top of his head, making him an excellent sparring partner. He feels what the client wants and needs, which results in high quality deliveries and advice.'

'Great client involvement, having detailed knowledge and giving practical and useful advice.'

'The team of Hart Advocaten is small but very effective and knowledgeable. Their strength is that they advise on the spot and they try to think further ahead about the activities of you as a client. Their advice is always to the point and pragmatic and that is what helps clients further.'

'Hart Advocaten has specific knowledge of financial law and knowledge of financial institutions and how they work.'

'Customer friendly and dedicated, hard working and focusing on the details that matter, always well prepared, easy to reach and contact. The people I have had direct contact with, besides Frank 't Hart, are Suzanna Rijpkema and Daira Cervera Garcia. Both are knowledgeable, are prepared to go the extra mile and are dedicated to the job, to the issue at hand and to the client.'

'Very efficient team, knowledgeable and practical approach.'

'Understand the daily practice of the client, as well as the relevant legislation, well.'
